

Provisional Programme
CASE SPECIAL CONFERENCE

MAKING SOCIAL POLICY WORK
AN EVENT TO CELEBRATE THE 70th BIRTHDAY OF
HOWARD GLENNERSTER

Wednesday 4 October 2006, 2-6.30pm, followed by an informal reception
Michio Morishima Room (R505), fifth floor Lionel Robbins Building

Chair: Malcolm Dean

At this event authors will present highlights of draft chapters of a book to be published by Policy Press, Making Social Policy Work: Essays in honour of Howard Glennerster, edited by John Hills, Julian Le Grand and David Piachaud. The chapters cover subjects which have been the focus of Howard's work, many of them focussed on recent and current policy debates in Howard's areas of particular interest.

2.00 Introduction

2.05 Professor Jose Harris (Oxford University): History and the Welfare State
Professor Jane Lewis (LSE): Parents, children and the state
Discussant: Professor Alan Deacon (Leeds University)

3.05 Dr Tania Burchardt (CASE): Welfare- for what?
Professor David Piachaud (LSE): The restructuring of redistribution
Discussant: Professor Tony Atkinson (Oxford University)

3.50 Tea

4.10 Professor Anne West (LSE): Schools
Professor Nick Barr (LSE): Efficiency, ideology and the finance of higher education
Discussant: Professor Simon Burgess (Bristol University and CASE)

4.55 Professor Julian Le Grand (LSE): Health care: From target to market
Professor Martin Knapp (LSE): Social care: Fundamental shifts
Discussant: Professor Carol Propper (Bristol University and CASE)

5.40 Professor John Hills (CASE): Pensions, public opinion and policy
Tony Travers (LSE): Resources for welfare
Professor Anne Power (LSE): Communities, social change and housing
Discussant: Dr Kitty Stewart (CASE)

6.30 Reception