

Jobs, Gender and Poverty IZA/DFID G<sup>2</sup>LM|LIC Launch Workshop

STICERD, London School of Economics, London, UK
June 19, 2019

Organizers: Oriana Bandiera (Programme Director G<sup>2</sup>LM|LIC, LSE and IZA)
Ahmed Elsayed (IZA)

Agenda

- 13:00 – 13:15      Welcome
Oriana Bandiera (Programme Director G<sup>2</sup>LM|LIC, LSE and IZA)
Hilmar Schneider (CEO of IZA)
Diana Dalton (Deputy Director of Research of DIFID)
- 13:15 – 14:30      Evidence Session 1
presentations: 30 min / general discussion: 15 min
- Camille Landais (London School of Economics and IZA)
“Children and the Persistence of Gender Inequality”
- Alessandra Voena (University of Chicago)
“Norms, Institutions and the Barriers to Gender Parity”
- 14:30 – 15:45      Evidence Session 2
presentations: 30 min / general discussion: 15 min
- Imran Rasul (University College London and IZA)
“Human Capital, Children and Labor Market Policies”
- Michèle Tertilt (University of Mannheim and IZA)
“Is Women’s Empowerment Good for Development?”
- 15:45 – 16:15      Tea and Coffee Break
- 16:15 – 18:00      Panel Discussion
Chair: Rachel Glennerster (DFID)
- “From Research to Policy and Back”
- Nava Ashraf (London School of Economics)
Robin Burgess (London School of Economics)
- “Questions for Future Research”
- Marianne Bertrand (University of Chicago and IZA) Video Link
Christopher A. Pissarides (London School of Economics and IZA)